

A DELICATE SITUATION RELIEVED

Sir Edward Grey Tells of Great Britain's Part in the Moroccan Muss—Situation Between Great Britain and Germany Was Tense For a Time, But "The Slate Has Now Been Cleaned"—Speech Cheered.

London, Nov. 27.—Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, in a quiet and unassuming manner but with intense impressiveness nevertheless, laid bare in the house of commons today the part which Great Britain played in the negotiations on Morocco, which brought Europe very close to war last summer. At the outset he referred to the disclosure by the German foreign minister, Herr Von Kiderlin-Waechter, of the conversations which took place between the German ambassador and himself. "This disclosure," he said, "was not complete and he was under the necessity of putting more fully before the house of commons the part taken by the British foreign office."

Slate Cleaned Between Germany and Great Britain.

The house was crowded with members and the galleries with distinguished outsiders, including most of the diplomatic corps, and every one hung on the words of the foreign secretary. Nothing was withheld. Sir Edward said frankly that the greatest anxiety existed, but fortunately he was able to add the negotiations had cleaned the slate between Germany and Great Britain. Anxiety was not constant, but intermittent, and was caused by the fact that the negotiations might at any time reach a deadlock. It looked on one or two occasions as if a deadlock could not be avoided. If that had come some power signatory to the Algeiras act might have suggested a conference. The course of this conference Germany, which had been sounded on this subject, said might not be acceptable.

The Cause of the Anxiety.

"That," declared the foreign secretary, "is what caused the anxiety for we have a situation wherein the partition of Morocco might begin without agreement between Germany, France and Spain." Great Britain, he continued, also received information which gave rise to apprehension that the settlement contemplated by Germany might be the partition of Morocco by negotiation to which it was not intended, stating that she desired

Saved Many from Death.
W. L. Mock of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma, or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. It is the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1 bottle. Guaranteed by The Lee & Osgood Co.

A Father's Vengeance would have fallen on anyone who attacked the son of Peter Bondy of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. It's the best kidney medicine I ever saw." Backache, tired feeling, nervousness, loss of appetite, warn of kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware! Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c. at The Lee & Osgood Co's.

Coughing at Night
means loss of sleep, which is bad for everyone. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops the cough at once, relieves the tickling and dryness in the throat and heals the inflamed membranes. Prevents a cold developing into bronchitis or pneumonia. Keep always in the house. Refuse substitutes. Lee & Osgood Co.

Sentiments Greeted With Cheers.

The secretary's lucid exposition of the negotiations and the firmness he was able to show he displayed during the trying weeks won for him the support of the house, aside from a few radicals or "peace" at any rate members, who believed that the firmness which prevented war will estrange Great Britain and Germany. His announcement that if a British minister could not say what Lloyd-George said in his much discussed speech, Great Britain would cease to be a great power, caused a great cheer, as did also his pronouncements that the cabinet would at all times protect British interests.

One Contradiction.

In one respect Sir Edward's statement flatly contradicts that by the German foreign minister. The latter said that Great Britain kept Germany waiting for an answer to the communication with regard to the despatch of the Panther to Agadir, whereas the British foreign secretary insisted that the delay in replying to inquiries were on Germany's side.

Confidence in Sir Edward.

In the lobbies, after the speech, confidence was expressed in Sir Edward's conduct of affairs during the crisis, and said that the government was working for better relations with Germany. It is believed that the speech will have a reassuring effect in Germany.

Policy Will Be Continued.

During the course of his reply to criticisms that the government acted with too much secrecy, the prime minister protested that the house never had greater opportunities to discuss international relations than at the present time. He declared that in the interest of the peace of the world, the government's policy will be continued.

The Situation in Persia.

Later Sir Edward Grey spoke on Persian and other matters. He defended the Anglo-Russian agreement, which prevented the two nations from trying to gain advantage of each other in Persia. When the nationalists got rid of the shah, they hoped also to get rid of Russian influence, but this was perfectly hopeless. Had they shown a friendly attitude toward Russia things would have gone well.

Believes Shuster Should Go.

Referring to the circulation by W. Morgan Shuster, the American treasurer-general of Persia, of a pamphlet attacking Russia, while the Russian demands were still unsatisfied, Sir Edward said that it was, of course, an impossible situation as an official of one of two neighboring powers circulated such pamphlets and still remained in the service of his government. He trusted that a solution could be found, but it was essential that the Persian government realized the impossibility of employing officials openly hostile to Russia, or of putting the hands of the clock back where Russian interests were concerned.

DOES NOT FAVOR FORCIBLE ANNEXATION OF CANADA

Champ Clark States His Real Attitude on This Issue.

Washington, Nov. 27.—"One of the most preposterous canards put into print since Gutenberg invented movable type," said Speaker Champ Clark today, "is the charge that I am in favor of the forcible annexation of Canada. There is not a fact in the universe on which to base a slander. I never at any time or place stated or even hinted such a wicked and quixotic scheme to any human being. I have never dreamed of such a thing and would oppose it to the utmost. I have frequently for years expressed the hope that there might be a union of the two countries by mutual consent and for the good of both. It always seemed to me a friendly suggestion, because we are neighbors of the same blood and speaking the same language, but as the Canadians do not seem to want that, there is an end of it."

"What I said at Fremont, Neb., was in response to a question from a person in the audience. I said I had never thought of anything but a union of the two countries by mutual consent. I did not say that it is an issue we ever would be, or that I desired it to be, but if Canada were agreeable nine-tenths of the people of the United States would endorse the idea."

FATE OF MONGOOSE HANGS IN BALANCE

One at Kansas City Zoo May Be Either Killed or Deported.

Washington, Nov. 27.—President Taft was called upon today to decide whether a mongoose on exhibition in the Kansas City, Mo., zoo, and probably the only one in this country, shall be permitted to live or be destroyed in accordance with the law. H. R. Wainwright, secretary of the Kansas City Zoological society, signed a letter to the president stating the animal was unlawfully delivered to the zoo by a special agent of the treasury department after it had been seized in a Kansas City department store on the ground that it was in this country illegally. He charges that it is now in incompetent hands and liable to great injury at any time to the great damage of American horticulture interests.

The mongoose is very destructive to bird life and the law orders all such animals deported or destroyed. Mr. Wainwright wants the animal killed. The case has been referred to the secretary of the treasury.

CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS IN NEW YORK STATE

Chauncey M. Depew and Andrew Carnegie Among Most Liberal Donors.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 27.—According to statements filed with the secretary of state today during the recent state campaign, the republican state committee received contributions from the following: William Barnes, Jr., $2,000; C. M. Depew $1,500; Andrew Carnegie and C. H. Mackay, each $1,000; John Hays Hammond, J. P. Morgan, Jr., Whitelaw Reid, Elihu Root, James S. Sherman, J. D. Archbold, C. N. Bliss, Henry Clows, Seth Low, L. P. Morton, David J. Hill, T. L. Woodruff, George E. Cortelyou, B. B. Odell, Jr., and G. W. Perkins, each $500; H. W. Taft, $150.

The contributors to the democratic committee, and included: W. A. Huppuch, Charles F. Murphy, Herman Ritter, each $1,000; William Church Osborn, Norman E. Mack and John B. Stanchfield, each $500; James A. O'Grady, $250; J. Sergeant, $250.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 27.—A cold wave sweeping from the Rocky mountains began to make itself felt in western Nebraska, Kansas and the Texas Panhandle today. Snow driven before a 35-mile wind swept western Kansas, causing heavy damage to livestock.

ITCHING ERUPTIONS

Pimples and Blisters That Disfigure and Distress.

Try this Remedy at Our Risk.
Even if it were not for the terrible itching and burning that make skin troubles so hard to bear, the disfigurement alone would make it desirable to effect a speedy cure. There is now a way of banishing these afflictions, whether eczema, tetor, barber's itch, ringworm or other skin disease.
Our new skin remedy, Saxon Salve, allays the itching almost as soon as applied. At the same time it siners gradually into the skin, carrying with it the soothing and healing ingredients which give its remarkable value, and thus reaches the seat of the disease. The eruptions soon disappear and the skin becomes soft and smooth once more. Saxon Salve is equally good for children and grown persons, and great improvement is soon seen. Saxon Salve is guaranteed to satisfy you—money back if it does not. Broadway Pharmacy, G. G. Engler, Norwich, Conn.

EVIDENCE COMPLETED IN CASE OF MRS. O'SHAUGHNESSY

Girl With Whom Her Husband Was in Love, Testifies.

New York, Nov. 27.—The trial of Mrs. Frances O'Shaughnessy for the murder of her husband on May 5, "in order to save his soul," was completed today with the exception of the summing up by attorneys. This will begin tomorrow. The case will probably go to the jury tomorrow afternoon. When today's session adjourned the courtroom was a scene of a remarkable demonstration of sympathy for the pale young defendant. Witnesses, friends and spectators, including two members of the lunacy commission, which inquired into Mrs. O'Shaughnessy's mental condition last June, gathered around her with expressions of hope for her acquittal.

"Were you engaged to George O'Shaughnessy?" asked Assistant District Attorney Edwards.
"Yes, sir," replied Tessie Hayes, faintly.
"When did you first hear that he was married?"
"On the Monday before the murder, Mrs. O'Shaughnessy met us and asked me if I knew George was her husband. I told her no; then asked George if he had told me he was not married. He said yes and a lot of other things."

"Did you ever permit him to make love to you after that time?"
"No, sir."

During the questioning of the witness Mrs. O'Shaughnessy sat with head bowed and at times the Hayes girl burst into tears as she talked. In your letter to George did you ever mention divorce?" she was asked by counsel for the defense.

"Yes, George threatened to shoot me and himself if I did not go with him."

Mrs. O'Shaughnessy testified that her husband told her he intended to take her to England, desert her there, and then come back to Tessie Hayes.

CHINESE WOMEN CAUSE OF DISORDER AT LISBON

Two Are Dead, 34 Wounded and 66 Are Under Arrest.

Lisbon, Nov. 27.—The disorders which occurred here last night, owing to the expulsion of two Chinese women for the illegal exercise of a "cure" for blindness, at one time attained serious proportions. All the streets in the center of the city were occupied by the cavalry who charged continuously in all directions.

The populace, which was armed, offered a firm resistance to the troops and shots were freely exchanged. Suddenly a great explosion was heard on the Plaza Dom Pedro. The cavalry galloped up unslinging their carbines, and poured volley after volley through the windows of a cafe in which a great mob had taken refuge and barricaded themselves with chairs and other furniture.

The mob answered the attack of the troops until all the large panes of glass were riddled with bullets. Then they surrendered. Two persons were found killed and a large number wounded on the floor of the cafe.

The disorders lasted until 3 o'clock this morning, but later everything became quiet. An official statement gives the number of killed as two, while 34 others were wounded and 66 arrested. The statement attributes the disorders to "enemies of the republic."

TWO PLEAD GUILTY TO FORGERY CHARGE

Said to Be Members of Gang Who Have Got $500,000 from Banks.

New York, Nov. 27.—William Schultzenberger, a young Brooklyn cigar manufacturer, and Isadore Weiss, who are said by the police to be members of a gang of forgers who have obtained more than $500,000 from banking institutions all over the country in the past five years, pleaded guilty to charges of forgery today before Judge Rostsky in general sessions, and were remanded to the Tombs until December 12 for sentence.

Charles Carless, a liquor dealer, who was arrested on November 7 last with Schultzenberger and Weiss, is now in the Tombs awaiting trial.

The forging of the checks was done by an experienced artist with a camel's hair brush. So clever was it that even the bank officials were deceived. The artist forger has not yet been found.

Taft's New Chief Naval Aide.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Lieut. John W. Timmons, U.S.N., was designated today as chief naval aide to President Taft, succeeding Lieut.-Commander Palmer, whose recent promotion relieves him from duty at the White house. Lieutenant Timmons is a son-in-law of former Vice President Fairbanks.
